ARTICLES OF FAITH

I. THE SCRIPTURES

We believe the Holy Bible was written by man divinely inspired, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that God is its author, salvation for its end and truth without any mixture of error for its matter; that it reveals principles by which God will judge us, and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds and opinions shall be tried.

II. THE TRUE GOD

We believe the Scriptures teach there is one and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, whose name is Jehovah, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of heaven and earth; inexpressibly glorious in holiness, and worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love; that in the unity of the Godhead there are three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; equal in every divine perfection and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.

III. THE FALL OF HUMANITY

We believe the Scriptures teach that man was created in holiness, under the law of his Maker; but by voluntary transgressions fell from that holy and happy state, in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners, not by constraint but choice; being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, positively inclined to evil; and therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin, without defense or excuse.

IV. THE WAY OF SALVATION

We believe the Scriptures teach that Salvation of sinners is wholly of grace; through the mediatorial offices of the Son of God; who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon Him our nature, yet without sin; honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and by His death made a full atonement for our sins; having risen from the dead, He is now enthroned in heaven; and uniting in His wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with divine perfections, He is in every way qualified to be a suitable, compassionate and all-sufficient Savior.

V. JUSTIFICATION

We believe the Scriptures teach that the great Gospel blessing which Christ secures to such as believe in Him is justification; justification includes the pardon of sin and the promise of eternal life on principles of righteousness; it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every blessing needful for time and eternity.

VI. THE FREENESS OF SALVATION

We believe the Scriptures teach that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel; that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by cordial, penitent and obedient faith; and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth, but his own determined depravity and voluntary rejection of the Gospel; which rejection involves Him in an aggravated condemnation.

VII. REGENERATION

We believe the Scriptures teach that in order to be saved, sinners must be regenerated or born again; that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind that is affected in a manner above our comprehension by the power of the Holy Spirit in connection with divine truth, so as to secure our visionary obedience to the Gospel; and that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of repentance and faith, and newness of life.

VIII. REPENTANCE AND FAITH

We believe the Scriptures teach that repentance and faith are sacred duties and also inseparable graces, wrought in our souls by the regenerating Spirit of God; whereby being deeply convinced of our guilt, danger, and helplessness and of the way of salvation by Christ, we turn to God with unfeigned contrition, confession, and supplication for mercy; at the same time heartily receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our prophet, priest and king, and relying on him alone as the only and all-sufficient Savior.

IX. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

We believe the Scriptures teach that election is the eternal purpose of God, according to which He graciously regenerates, sanctifies and saves sinners; that being perfectly consistent with the free agency of man, it comprehends all the means in connection with the end, that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely free, wise, holy and unchangeable; that it utterly excludes boasting and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God and active imitation of His free mercy; that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree; that it may be ascertained by its effects in all who truly believe the Gospel; that it is the foundation of Christian assurance; and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves demands the utmost diligence.

X. SANCTIFICATION

We believe the Scriptures teach that Sanctification is the process by which, according to the will of God, we are made partakers of His holiness; that it is a progressive work; that it is begun in regeneration; and that it is carried on in the hearts of believers by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, the Sealer and Comforter, in the continual use of the appointed means, especially the Word of God, self-examination, self-denial, watchfulness and prayer.

XI. PERSEVERANCE OF SAINTS

We believe the Scriptures teach that such only are real believers as endure to the end; that their persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors; that a special Providence watches over their welfare; and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XII. THE LAW AND GOSPEL

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government; that it is holy, just and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts, arise entirely from their love of sin; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy Law, is one great end of the Gospel and of the Means of Grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.

XIII. A GOSPEL CHURCH

We believe the Scriptures teach that a visible church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by His laws; and exercising the gifts, rights and privileges invested in them by His Word; that its only scriptural officers are Bishops or Pastors, and Deacons whose qualifications, claims and duties are defined in the Epistles to Timothy and Titus.

XIV. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

We believe the Scriptures teach that Christian's baptism is the immersion in water of a believer, into the name of the Father, and Son and Holy Ghost; to show forth in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified, buried and risen Savior, with its effect, in our death to sin and resurrection to a new life; that it is prerequisite to the privileges of a church relation; and to the Lord's Supper, in which the members of the church, by the sacred use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ; preceded always by solemn self-examination.

XV. THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH

We believe the scriptures teach that the first day of the week is the Lord's Day or Christian Sabbath, and is to be kept sacred to religious purposes both private and public, and by preparation that rest remaineth for the people of God.

XVI. CIVIL GOVERNMENT

We believe the Scriptures teach that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interest and good order of human society; and magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored and obeyed; except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the Kings of the earth.

XVII. RIGHTEOUS AND WICKED

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked; that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in His esteem; while all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in His sight wicked and under the curse; and this distinction holds among people both in and after death.

XVIII. THE WORLD TO COME

We believe the scriptures teach that the end of the world is approaching; at the last day, Christ will descend from heaven, and raise the dead from the grave for final retribution; a solemn separation will then take place; the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment and the righteous to endless joy; and this judgment will fix forever the final state of humanity in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.

RULES OF CHURCH ORDER

1. Let all things be done decently and in order - I Corinthians 14:40
2. Let all things be done with charity - I Corinthians 16:14
3. Let all things be done to edify Him - I Corinthians 14:26
4. Do all in the name of the Lord Jesus - Colossians 3:17

THE CHURCH COVENANT

HAVING BEEN LED, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

WE ENGAGE, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to work together in Christian love; strive for the advancement of this Church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort; promote its prosperity and spirituality; sustain its worship, ordinances, disciplines and doctrines; contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expense of the Church, relief of the poor and spreading of the gospel throughout all nations.

WE ALSO ENGAGE to maintain family and secret devotions; religiously educate our children; seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; walk circumspectly in the world; be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; avoid all gossiping and excessive anger; abstain from drunkenness; and be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

WE FURTHER ENGAGE to watch over one another in brotherly/sisterly love; remember each other in prayer; aid each other in sickness and distress; cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

WE MOREOVER ENGAGE that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible, unite with another church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

CHURCH BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. - NAME

The Church shall be known as New Hope Baptist Church, located at 130 Delaware Street SW, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49507.

ARTICLE II. - CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. - JOINING THE UNIVERSAL BODY OF CHRIST

At the time of personal faith in Jesus Christ, the believer is called into fellowship of God's Son, Jesus Christ, and unites with the universal body of Christ, the church.¹

The believer is also brought into fellowship with other believers and members of the body, so that he or she might share and participate in the various blessings and ministries of the body of Christ. For this to occur properly, believers are to seek the fellowship of one another in a local assembly of believers, to which they are to become responsible. The local assembly is considered a mini-flock of the greater, universal flock of God.²

It is contrary to scripture for believers to operate in isolation--not connected with a local assembly. The local assembly (the local church) is to be a body of people spiritually led by the church senior pastor³ and subject to the discipline of that assembly.⁴

This union implies more than a loose relationship between a believer and a particular assembly. It involves a tie of commitment, responsibility, involvement and submission to the church leadership and to other members of that assembly.

SECTION 2. - QUALIFICATIONS FOR CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

Individuals who meet the following scriptural and church requirements shall be eligible for membership in New Hope Baptist Church (hereinafter, "the Church").

The scriptural requirements include:

1. Making a personal confession and commitment of faith in Jesus Christ for salvation (born again);⁵
2. Submitting to the ordinance of baptism by immersion as a public testimony of salvation if not already baptized by immersion;⁶
3. Supporting the testimony of the Church by faithfully attending Sunday worship, maintaining a Godly and holy lifestyle, and giving consistently;⁷
4. Cooperating in the responsibility and work of the Church through praying for its spiritual and numerical growth, evangelizing the lost, inviting the un-churched to attend and acting in love toward other members;
5. Serving the Church by understanding and discovering his or her spiritual giftedness and being equipped by the pastor(s) to serve the local body, the community, the world.⁹

The Church requirements include:

1. Completing an Application for Membership under either of the following methods:
 - a. As a candidate for baptism;
 - b. As a transfer by letter from a previous church; or
 - c. By rededication
2. Completing the Church's Membership classes within 180 days from the date of Application for Membership.

SECTION 3. - MEMBERSHIP DEFINED

Membership in the Church is important and valuable. Membership affords certain rights, responsibilities and privileges to the members of the church, as set forth in the current Membership Handbook. This section outlines the church's three categories of membership. Any dispute with regard to an assigned membership category will be resolved by the Pastor(s) and Deacons.

3.1. VOTING ELIGIBLE MEMBER

A "Voting Eligible Member" is qualified to vote in all business meetings of the Church, and to receive privileges from the Church as set forth in the Membership Handbook. Any individual who meets all of the following criteria shall be considered a "Voting- Eligible Member:"

1. Meets the scriptural and Church requirements for membership as outlined in Section 2 of this Article;
2. Consistently gives to the church (a minimum of $100 within the preceding 365 days); and
3. Regularly attends worship service, unless physically unable to do so.

3.2 VOTING-INELIGIBLE MEMBER

A "Voting-Ineligible Member" is not qualified to vote in the business meetings of the Church, nor to receive the privileges of the Church as set forth in the Membership Handbook. An individual who meets any one (1) of the following criteria shall be considered a "Voting-Ineligible Member:"

1. Has moved away from the community, but has not yet transferred his or her membership to another church;
2. Has for any cause, except physical inability, been absent from regularly attending worship service; or
3. Has not contributed to the Church treasury within the preceding 365 days.

3.3 WATCH CARE MEMBER

A "Watch Care Member" has all of the rights and privileges of a Voting-Eligible Member, with the exception of attending and voting in the business meetings of the Church. An individual who meets all of the following criteria shall be considered a "Watch Care Member":

1. Currently belongs to another church;
2. Temporarily resides in the Church community; and
3. Wishes to be under the care of the Church.

SECTION 4. - LEGAL MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

Membership does not afford any member with property, contractual, or civil rights based on principles of democratic government. Although the general public is invited to all of the Church's worship services, the church property remains private property. The Senior Pastor (or in his absence, an individual designated by the board of deacons) has the authority to suspend or revoke the right of any person, including a member, to enter or remain on church property. If after being notified of such a suspension or revocation, the person enters or remains on church property, the person may, in the discretion of the Senior Pastor (or in his absence, an individual designated by the board of deacons), be treated as a trespasser.

SECTION 5. - DISCIPLINE AND RESTORATION OF MEMBERS

The policy of church discipline and restoration is derived from the teachings of scripture (Matt. 18:15-17). Any member of the Church who (1) persists in serious behavior or doctrinal error contrary to scriptures, (2) no longer conforms to the qualifications for membership, or (3) willingly causes discord within the Church by word or action, in spite of repeated warnings and admonition, shall be subject to church discipline. No action shall be taken until patient and persistent effort has been made to win such member back to the standard of faith and conduct of the Church.

5.1. PURPOSE OF DISCIPLINE

The purpose of discipline is to bring about repentance from sin and to reconcile and restore an individual to the fellowship. Discipline is essential for (3) scriptural reasons:

1. The glory and honor of God;
2. For the sake of the individual who is sinning; and
3. As a warning to others who are sinning.¹⁰

5.2. PROCESS OF DISCIPLINE

In accordance with Matthew 18:15-18, if any member of the Church has knowledge of another member's unbiblical beliefs or conduct, it shall be the duty of the member with knowledge to privately approach and communicate the error to the offending member. (If the member feels uncomfortable, that member should seek guidance from a Church officer.)

If the offending member does not repent of the offense after being privately approached, then the process of discipline shall be carried out in the following manner:

1. The member with knowledge of the offense shall privately approach the offending member again, accompanied by one or two witnesses, seeking the repentance of the offending member. If the offending member does not repent, then the process of discipline shall continue in the manner set forth in Section 5.2.2 of this Article.
2. The members with knowledge of offense, who contacted the offending member, shall contact the Pastor(s) and/or deacon board with the details of the offending member's beliefs or conduct. The Pastor(s), Deacon Board Chair, and one or two more deacons shall contact the offending member seeking more information, and his or her repentance if the sin is confirmed. If the member refuses to repent, then the Deacon Board shall either revoke the membership of the offending member, or develop another method of discipline.

During the entire discipline process, the officers and members involved must continually pray for the offending member's repentance and restoration of membership.

5.3. CONFIDENTIALITY OF DISCIPLINE

All persons involved in the discipline process of an offending member are required to keep the process completely confidential.

SECTION 6. - TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

Any Voting-Eligible Member who wishes to transfer his or her membership to another church shall inform the Church so that a letter of recommendation may be given to the member in question.

ARTICLE III. - BUSINESS MEETINGS

SECTION 1. - ANNUAL AND REGULAR CHURCH BUSINESS MEETINGS

There shall be two Church business meetings every year. The annual business meeting of the Church shall take place each October or no more than 30 days thereafter, and a regular Church business meeting will take place six months following the annual business meeting. Church business meetings shall be held at the Church building or at any other place within the City of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The business that shall be conducted at the annual business meeting includes election of officers, and any other business as may be appropriate. The business that shall be conducted at a regular business meeting includes review of the budget, and any other business as may be appropriate.

Section 1.1 Notice of the Annual Business Meeting

Section 1.2. Notice of a Regular Business Meeting

Section 2.1. Notice of Special Business Meetings.

Notice of a special business meeting shall be given to the church membership no less than two (2) consecutive Sundays prior to said meeting. Notice of a special business meeting shall be given in both of the following manners, which shall be deemed reasonable methods of notice for a special business meeting:

1. By including notice of the meeting in the Church e-bulletin and bulletin at a regular Sunday worship service; and
2. By orally announcing the meeting to the congregation in attendance at a regular Sunday worship service.

Section 2.2. Required Content of Notice of Special Business Meetings.

Notice of a special business meeting shall include the time, place, and purpose of said meeting. The only business that shall be conducted at a special business meeting are such business matters specifically stated in the notice.

Section 2.3. Special Budget-Adoption Meeting

The Voting-Eligible members of the Church must vote on and adopt the Church budget annually. If the annual budget is not prepared for a vote by the annual business meeting, then the Voting-Eligible members of the Church will vote on and adopt the Church budget in a special budget-adoption meeting before the end of the fiscal year.

SECTION 3. – EMERGENCY BUSINESS MEETINGS

An ‘emergency business meeting’ is a meeting to transact business that cannot wait until a regular, special, or annual Church business meeting. Emergency business meetings may be called at any time to address any urgent business matter in either of the following ways: (1) at the request of the Senior Pastor; (2) at the request of the Executive Pastor; (3) at the request of the Deacon Board Chair; (4) at the request of the Trustee Board Chair or (5) with a written request addressed to the joint board of not less than twenty-percent of the Voting-Eligible members of the Church.

Section 3.1. Notice and Required Content of Notice of Emergency Business Meetings.

Notice of an emergency business meeting shall be given to the church membership no less than three (3) days prior to said meeting. Notice of an emergency business meeting shall be given in a commercially reasonable manner in light of the urgent business matters to be discussed in the meeting. Either of the following manners shall be deemed reasonable methods of notice for an emergency business meeting:

1. By including notice of the meeting in the Church bulletin at a regular Sunday worship service;
2. By orally announcing the meeting to the congregation in attendance at a regular Sunday worship service;
3. By telephonic message to the members of the congregation; or
4. By electronic message to the members of the congregations, including electronic announcements and emails.

SECTION 4. RIGHT TO INSPECTION IN LIEU OF A MEETING

Rather than holding a meeting to review the budget, each Voting-Eligible Member has the right, pursuant to and in accordance with Article VI, Section 4.4.1 (b) of the Church Bylaws, to review the prepared financial statements of the Church.

SECTION 5. - VOTING ELIGIBILITY

In order for a member to vote in a Church election, said member must meet the following requirements: (1) be a Voting-Eligible Member of the Church, and (2) be at least 18 years of age.

SECTION 6. - VOTING

Church action on each matter being voted upon shall require a concurrence of a majority of the voting members present at an annual, regular, special, or emergency business meeting, unless provided otherwise in these Bylaws. Voting members will be allowed to vote in person or may be allowed to vote by absentee ballot on those issues which are identified prior to the meeting.

SECTION 7. – QUORUM

A "quorum" is the minimum number of voting members (Voting-eligible Members that are at least 18 years of age) required to be present at an annual, regular, special, or emergency business meeting in order to transact business. For the purpose of transacting business, the voting members that are present at an annual, regular, special, or emergency business meeting, shall constitute a quorum, unless provided otherwise in these Bylaws.

SECTION 8. RULES OF ORDER TO GOVERN ALL MEETINGS

Unless stated otherwise in these Bylaws, the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the accepted pattern for transacting church business in all annual, quarterly, and special meetings.

SECTION 9. - PRESIDING OFFICIAL

The Senior Pastor shall moderate all church business meetings. In his absence, the following order of succession shall apply: (1) the Executive Pastor, (2) Deacon Board Chair, and (3) Trustee Board Chair.

SECTION 10. – SALARY LIMITATIONS

Salary increases or decreases shall not be initiated in any church business meeting.

ARTICLE IV. - DEACONS

GENERAL SCOPE

Deacons are the servant-ministers of the Church. Their purpose is to relieve the pastor(s) of the multitude of practical duties of caring for the flock. No specific, on-going deacon roles are mentioned in Scripture, probably because service needs change, and so the role of the deacons must remain flexible. Perhaps this is why qualifications for deacons are stressed in Scripture rather than specific tasks. Deacons are to give their primary attention toward caring for the congregation's physical welfare. Deacons have the honor of modeling, for the local Church and the lost world, God's compassion, kindness, mercy, and love. As the Church compassionately cares for people's needs, the world sees a visible display of Christ's love, which will draw some people to the Savior. Deacons are to be an example of commitment, unity, and harmony in their service.

SECTION 1. - QUALIFICATIONS

Deacons must possess the scriptural qualifications stated in I Tim. 3:8-10, 12-13*

- 1) A man of dignity.
- 2) Not double tongued.
- 3) Not given to substance abuse.
- 4) Not fond of sordid gain.
- 5) Holds to the mystery of faith with a clear conscience.
- 6) Must be tested.
- 7) Beyond reproach.
- 8) Husband of one wife.

- 9) Good managers of their children and their households.
- 10) Must have a wife that is honest, sober and faithful.

Additionally, deacons must be Voting-Eligible Members of the Church and spiritually qualified to serve as a deacon by tithing at the Church, attending Sunday morning worship, and demonstrating their commitment to growing as a follower of Christ and to the fellowship of the Church by attending Sunday School or Bible Study classes.

*The pastoral leadership of New Hope Baptist Church has determined that there is nothing in scripture that prohibits a woman from also serving as a deacon of the Church. The interpretation of scripture held by pastoral leadership also holds the position that a deacon can be single or divorced. Scripture implies that the deacon can only have one spouse at a time and must be faithful to that spouse. Similarly, the proviso that deacons be good managers of their children and households does not necessitate that deacons be parents. Each of these biblical qualifications for a deacon are centered on personal character rather than stage of life.

SECTION 2. - SELECTION PROCESS

When there is a need for deacons, as demonstrated in Acts 6:1-7, the Senior Pastor, after consultation with the Deacon Board Chair, will make his recommendation to the Church for a deacon-in-training at the annual business meeting.

2.1 – Exclusivity of Board Service

A deacon cannot serve simultaneously as a trustee.

2.2 - Reciprocity of Deaconship

The Church is not obligated to recognize any member as an Active Deacon, simply because he or she served as a deacon in a previous congregation.

SECTION 3. - TRAINING AND EDUCATION

Special training is required to serve as a deacon. He or she will complete one year minimum of training. The training will be conducted by the Senior Pastor and/or his designee. The Senior Pastor will determine if the training should extend beyond one year.

SECTION 4. - ORDINATION

Prospective deacons will not be ordained until the Senior Pastor, after consultation with the Deacon Board Chair, determines that the prospective deacon candidate is ready. After the completion of their training, deacon candidates will be ordained by the Senior Pastor in the presence of the membership.

SECTION 5. - TERM OF OFFICE

The office term of a deacon is three years. Terms begin on January 1 and end on December 31. Consecutive terms are acceptable and encouraged for those who are fulfilling their responsibilities as deacons.

5.1 - CONSECUTIVE TERMS

The deacon board will present the names of those deacons who wish to serve a consecutive term to the church membership in attendance at an annual meeting after the following criteria have been met:

1. The deacon completes a three-year service term,
2. The deacon affirms that God's leading is for him or her to continue serving as an active deacon, and

3. The deacon board votes to recommend that the deacon be presented to the church membership at the annual meeting.

SECTION 6. - DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The deacons are to effectively and carefully administer the Church's charitable activities. Although they meet, in many ways, the spiritual needs of those they serve, their primary service is related to physical needs. Specific duties include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Administering the benevolent fund in accordance with the current Benevolence Policy.
- 2) Assisting the Senior Pastor in the preparation and serving of the Lord's Supper.
- 3) Providing congregational care by visiting those in need.
- 4) Appointing a search committee to seek the Lord's will regarding the Senior Pastor, in the event the Church is without a senior pastor.
- 5) Evaluating the Senior Pastor every year.
- 6) Meeting regularly to discuss the fulfillment of the duties and responsibilities of deacons. Scheduling of meetings is determined by the chairman of the deacon board.
- 7) Performing any other duties and/or responsibilities as determined by the Deacon Board Chair.

SECTION 7. - SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE DEACON BOARD CHAIR

In addition to the previously stated requirements, the Deacon Board Chair, because of his or her additional duties and responsibilities, must also meet the following additional requirements:

- 1) Exhibits leadership ability;
- 2) Possesses communications skills indicative of a leader;
- 3) Organizes and initiates activities;
- 4) Possesses cognitive ability to make intelligent decisions;
- 5) Motivates, directs and organizes board;
- 6) Has a firm understanding of biblical principles;
- 7) Participates in the training of future deacons;
- 8) Leads by example;
- 9) Has a firm understanding of financial reports;
- 10) Is knowledgeable of all Church Bylaws, rules, regulations and infrastructure; and

If a deacon is removed by a majority vote of the deacon board, the congregation shall be notified that said person is no longer a deacon.

ARTICLE V. - TRUSTEES

GENERAL SCOPE

While Scripture indicates that pastors bear the ultimate responsibility for the watch care of the Church, it does allow for the delegation of responsibilities. The church is also able to realize significant benefits by being designated as a 501(c)(3) organization with the State of Michigan. For these reasons, the pastor(s) and congregation of the Church have specifically delegated to the Trustee Board the governance responsibility of the legal, financial, business, and property matters of the Church.

The Trustee Board shall create whatever supporting committees it deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities, and to fulfill any requirements necessary for the Trustee Board members to act as legal representatives of the Church.

ARTICLE VI. – JOINT BOARD

The deacon board and trustee board together will comprise the church's Joint Board. As such, The Joint Board serves as the Church's primary governance (or legislative) body. The Joint Board will meet periodically to discuss legal, financial, and/or administrative matters that exceed the scope of either individual board.

The Joint Board will annually recommend and appoint persons to serve in the "Standing Committees" and "Other Church Officer" roles as detailed below in Sections 3 and 4, respectively. The Joint Board will also establish standing and special committees as described in this Article.

Committees will possess certain authority and responsibility levels of the corporate Church, as delegated by the Joint Board. Each approved committee will function under a Ministry Position Description. This description will outline each committee's purpose and describe the duties and responsibilities that have been delegated to each committee. Each Committee's function will be primarily governance in nature, versus the pastor(s) and staff whose primary functions are ministerial and administrative. In other words, Committees will seek to ensure compliance with internal Church policies and procedures, as well as all pertinent external regulations.

The leadership of the Church believes that committees must be held to a minimum. Each committee:

- Is voluntary in nature;

- Should have representation by non-officers; and
- Should be an odd number of individuals.

The present Standing Committees are as follows:

ARTICLE VII. - SENIOR PASTOR

SECTION 1. - QUALIFICATIONS

The senior pastor shall be a man whose life is characterized by the qualities set forth in I Tim. 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9. These qualities can be characterized as:

- 1) Must desire the office of senior pastor and demonstrate spiritual leadership abilities among the congregation.
- 2) Ability to teach and use the Word of God with wisdom and patience.
- 3) A lover of God and a man who takes God and His Word seriously.

- 9) A good reputation with the community.

For final consideration as pastor, the applicant in question must pass drug and alcohol testing; he shall also participate in a medical examination including HIV testing, criminal and credit records check. There will be additional requirements for qualification, as determined by the search committee.

SECTION 2. - SELECTION PROCESS

In the event the Church is without a senior pastor, the deacon board will appoint a search committee to seek the Lord's will regarding the senior pastor. A minimum of one deacon will be a search committee member and will act as chairman of the search committee. When they are unanimous in their recognition of God's leadership towards a candidate(s), they will seek affirmation from the members of the Church in a special meeting. A majority vote of all qualified Church members voting is required to select a senior pastor.

SECTION 3. - TERM OF OFFICE

He shall remain in office for an indefinite period of time subject to the following reservations. If the deacon board is in three-fourths agreement with the purpose of removing the senior pastor from his position, it must bring this recommendation to the Joint Board. By 2/3 majority of the votes cast by the Active Members, the senior pastor will be removed from his position.

SECTION 4. - RESPONSIBILITIES

He is responsible to the Church in accordance with its deacon board in the discharge of his duties, as in following the custom and tradition of Baptist doctrine.

He will provide the majority of the teaching during worship services, bible study, etc. and will coordinate the administration of the ordinances (Baptism and the Lord's Supper).

In addition to his shepherding role, the primary responsibility is a ministry of the word of prayer providing strategic leadership and vision to the body. He is to help believers mature their faith through insightful and accurate presentation of biblical truth, equipping them to be true "ministers" of the body. Because of these primary roles, the ministry of the Word and his leadership, the senior pastor will prioritize his time, focusing upon these duties first.

He will supervise his direct reports as defined by the deacon board and/or the Church.

Finances: He will not have decision-making authority regarding Church financial aspects or may not be involved in or have the authority to make disbursements of Church funds. He will be given a yearly budget and may not exceed it without the approval of the deacon board.

Absence: He will not be absent from the pulpit unless ill, on vacation or in agreement with the majority of the deacon board for more than two consecutive Sundays within any month (four weeks). Anytime the senior pastor is going to be absent from the pulpit (out of town, visiting another church, etc.), he must advise the chairman of the deacon board, or in his absence, the vice-chairman of the deacon board prior to announcing it to the congregation.

The above does not limit the responsibilities and duties of the senior pastor.

ARTICLE VIII. - INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 1. – ACTIONS SUBJECT TO INDEMNIFICATION

The church may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including all appeals (other than an action by or in the right of the church) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a pastor, deacon, trustee, employee, or agent of the church, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding; and if that person acted in good faith and in a manner s/he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the church and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe her/his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that s/he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the church and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that her/his conduct was unlawful.

SECTION 2. – EXPENSES SUBJECT TO INDEMNIFICATION

To the extent that a pastor, deacon, trustee, employee, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in that action, suit, or proceeding, s/he may be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by her/him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding.

SECTION 3. – LIMITATIONS OF INDEMNIFICATION

Any indemnification made under this Article, may be made by the Church only as authorized in the specific case on a determination that indemnification of the pastor, deacon, trustee, employee, or agent is proper in the circumstances because s/he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article. The determination shall be made (a) by a majority vote of quorum consisting of the pastor and deacons who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit or proceeding; (b) if the described quorum is not obtainable or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested deacons so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (c) by a majority vote of the members of the church.

SECTION 4. – TIMING OF INDEMNIFICATION

Expenses of each person seeking indemnification under this Article, may be paid by the church as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by the board of deacons in the specific case, on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the pastor, deacon, trustee, employee, or agent to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that s/he is not qualified to be indemnified by the church.

SECTION 5. – EXTENT OF INDEMNIFICATION

The indemnification provided by this Article shall be deemed to be discretionary unless otherwise required as a matter of law or under any agreement or provided by insurance purchased by the church, both as to action of each person seeking indemnification under this Article in her/his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office, and may continue as to a person who has ceased to be a pastor, deacon, trustee, employee, or agent and may inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of that person.

SECTION 6. – INSURANCE

The church may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a pastor, deacon, trustee, employee or agent of the church against any liability asserted against her/him and incurred by her/him in that capacity or arising out of her/his status in that capacity, whether or not the church would have the power to indemnify her/him against liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE IX. - SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

Sexual harassment and/or discrimination (“SHD”) is prohibited. Everyone is to be treated fairly in all aspects of Church and/or related activities.

Sexual harassment is un-welcomed (physical, verbal, written) sexual advance or inappropriate sexual action (gestures, jokes, etc.).

Discrimination is speech or action against anyone based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, physical or mental handicap.

Any person who feels that he or she is a victim of SHD (“the claimant”), should immediately discuss the matter with a member of the Personnel Committee. All allegations will be investigated. The identity of claimant will remain confidential unless further investigation is needed.

Incidents of SHD may result in disciplinary or/counseling action, denial of attendance at Church activities, revocation of Church membership and/or reporting to the police.

ARTICLE X. - FUNDRAISERS / SALES

Fundraising activities at the Church are discouraged, but in some cases, will be considered for approval. To obtain approval, the individual or organization must submit a written fundraising proposal to the Senior Pastor for review. The proposal must include the proposed use of the funds, a detailed description of the fundraising activity, and supporting documentation if the funds are to be used for a charitable purpose. If the Senior Pastor supports the fundraising activity, the proposal must be forwarded to the Joint Board for final approval. The Joint Board will notify the Senior Pastor of its final decision regarding the proposal. The Senior Pastor will then notify the individual or organization. If approved, the Senior Pastor must designate a person to supervise the fundraising activity.

The Church will not be held liable for any action or events resulting from fundraisers that have not been authorized by the Joint Board. There will be no indemnification for any action arising from an unauthorized fundraiser.

ARTICLE XI. – STATEMENT OF FAITH AND POLICY ON MARRIAGE, GENDER, AND HUMAN SEXUALITY

Introduction

This is a policy statement on the religious beliefs of New Hope Baptist Church (“the Church”) concerning marriage, gender, and human sexuality and our policies based upon the necessary application of our faith to life and practice.

What We Believe About Marriage, Gender, and Human Sexuality

We believe that every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect, and dignity. However, when the Scriptures speak against other philosophies, belief systems and behaviors, we will be true to the Scriptures and will speak the truth, but will do so in love. Hateful and harassing behavior or attitudes directed toward any individual (s) are to be repudiated and are not in accord with Scripture nor the doctrines of the Church.

We believe that the term “marriage” has only one meaning and that is: marriage sanctioned by God which joins one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture (Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:4-6).

We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to only occur between a man and a woman who are married to each other (Mark 10:6-8). We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a man and a woman.

We believe that any form of sexual immorality, including but not limited to adultery, fornication, homosexuality, bisexual conduct, bestiality, incest, pornography, any attempt to change one’s sex, and disagreement with one’s biological sex assigned at natural birth is sinful and offensive to God (Rom 1:20-32; I Cor 6:9, 18-20; Eph 5:1-7; Col 3:5-6; I Th 4:3-8).

We believe that God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ (John 3:16; Eph 2:1-5; 2 Cor 5:17).

Our Faith –Based Policy on Marriage, Gender, and Human Sexuality

As a result of these above-described religious beliefs, and our belief in the need for a practice of fidelity to these beliefs, it is our policy that the facilities of the Church will not be used to perform any marriage ceremony that is inconsistent with the definition of marriage found in this Policy. It is also our policy that no clergy of this Church (employee or volunteer) shall officiate a marriage ceremony that is inconsistent with the definition of marriage found in this Article.

The clergy of this Church will only perform biblically based “covenant ceremonies” that bless the union between one man and one woman as biologically assigned at their natural birth.

We believe that in order to preserve the function and integrity of the Church as the local Body of Christ, and to provide a biblical role model to the church members and the community, it is imperative that all persons who are employed by this Church in any capacity, or who serve as leaders and volunteers, should abide by and agree to this Statement of Faith and Policy on Marriage, Gender, and Human Sexuality and conduct themselves accordingly.

Church Practices Derived from This Policy

1. Ordained clergy or licensed ministers¹ of this Church (employee or volunteer) shall affirm the Statement of Faith and Policy on Marriage, Gender, and Human Sexuality adopted by this church.
